

The Arctic Graduate School (ARKTIS), coordinated by the Arctic Centre at the University of Lapland, opens a call for five (5) full-time RESEARCH STUDENT POSITIONS for the period 1.1.2007–31.12.2010.

Research student positions, funded by the Ministry of Education, are intended for graduate students with a higher university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) who conduct their doctoral degree at the Universities of Lapland, Oulu and Helsinki.

The theme of the multidisciplinary Arctic Graduate School is 'Social and Environmental Impacts of Modernization and Global Change in the Arctic'. The disciplines of the school are social sciences – such as sociology, anthropology, political science, environmental politics and international relations, economic studies, cultural studies, law, education – as well as biology and geography.

Detailed information about the positions, salaries and the application documents required is available at: www.arcticcentre.org/arktis. The written applications in English language should be addressed to the Directory Board of ARKTIS and sent by e-mail to: kirjaamo@ulapland.fi or by mail to: University of Lapland (Kirjaamo: Yliopistonkatu 8), PO Box 122, 96101 Rovaniemi, Finland. The deadline for applications is 31 October 2006, 13:00.

www.arcticcentre.org